

HANDOUT 11AFamily Communication Profile

How would you describe your communication style?

How would you describe your child's communication style?

Do you have a regular time and place to talk?

What are the times you are most available?

Where and when is your child most comfortable talking (e.g., riding in the car, at bedtime)?

What is something you do that promotes good communication?

What is something you do that interferes with listening or talking with your child?

What is something your child does that interferes with your ability to listen or talk with him or her?
